eMAG' S SECOND ISSUE NOW ONLINE

FUNCHAL, 06 February 2007 – The second issue of Youthstream's official magazine eMag is now online, and can be downloaded for free by clicking here.

FIM Motocross and Supermoto World Championships organizer Youthstream combined both sports in this second edition of eMag.

Half Motocross and half Supermoto: this month's eMag is full of news

This easy-to-consult magazine is written in English, and can be downloaded for free as a pdf file. After the download, the readers will either store the eMag in the computer, to read it at their pleasure, or change it into a more traditional magazine, by printing it on paper.

Thanks to the power of the Internet, the interesting features of this second eMag will be read all over the world, and will contribute to raise the interest in the coming Motocross and Supermoto seasons.

*The second issues contains:

Racing: FIM Motocross World Championship season reports; a feature on the 60th FIM Motocross of Nations at Matterley Basin; FIM Supermoto World Championship season reports; previews about the coming Motocross and Supermoto seasons

Interviews: Stefan Everts; James Stewart; Thierry Van Den Bosch; Bernd Hiemer; Pit Beirer

This month's eMag also talks about the fabulous 2006 FIM Off Road Awards night at Monte Carlo, and there are many pictures describing the 2006 season.

It is just one click, but it will bring each reader much further than they imagined.

Youthstream is the company that manages the exclusive television, marketing and promotional world wide rights of the FIM Motocross World Championship, the FIM Motocross of Nations, the FIM SuperMoto World Championship, the FIM SuperMoto of Nations, the FIM Snowcross World Championship, the UEM Motocross European Championship and the UEM SuperMoto European Championship.
